

Fowarim Stakeholder's Workshop

Facilitators from CIHEAM-IAMB Mediterranean Agronomic Institute of Bari (IT)

Daniela R. D'Agostino, Ph. D.

She is a scientific consultant and researcher at IAMB since 2005. She holds a degree in Forest and Environmental Sciences and a Ph.

D. in Agro-Forestry and Environment Engineering. Her research interests include surface hydrologic modelling at catchment and regional scale; water resource management and agricultural water needs; semi-quantitative modelling for the analysis and management of qualitative data in the participatory and stakeholders driven processes; elaboration, management, and analysis of cartographic data using GIS techniques; statistical analysis and management of climatic data. She teaches Application of GIS in land and water resource management at the Land and Water Resources Management master course of IAMB and has co-supervised at IAMB 8 master students. She has a decennial working experience in numerous national and international projects on integrated water resources management, impacts of climate changes, sustainable irrigation management, and she collaborated in multiple capacity building activities. She has authored and co-authored 12 publications in national and international refereed journals, 10 conference proceedings, 9 chapters in books.

Virginia Belsanti

She is a project contract officer at CIHEAM Bari since 2002. Degree in Political Science, Economics-International specialization (Uni Bari), MA in Diplomatic Studies (London), Post-graduate Diploma in Management of Local Development (ILO), Certificate in Partnership Brokerage (TPI London), Certificate in Writing in the Sciences (Stanford). She is an expert in EU project and policy planning, covering different aspects from partnership brokerage, project design to content definition and administrative management. She has been involved in a variety of activities related to training, research and cooperation in the areas of poverty and rural development, innovation systems, management of local development, policy and institutional frameworks for sustainable development promotion; research cooperation, multi stakeholder dialogue promotion. She has a 15-year experience of training design and research tutoring.